C. SURYANARAYANA SASTRI,
For District Magistrate.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 160, dated 29*th May* 1923.

The Chief Court issues the following rules for regulating the practice of Civil Courts in the matter of calculating the duration of cases, in supersession of the marginally noted Rules of Practice, Circular Letters, etc :—

1. For the purposes of reckoning duration, suits, appeals or applications will be deemed to have been instituted on the date on which the plaint, memorandum of appeal or application is presented except when these are returned for amendment before admission, in which case the duration should be reckoned from the date of admission after amendment.

2. Sundays and holidays should not be excluded in computing the period of the pendency of a suit, appeal or proceeding.

3. Suits and appeals once dismissed or decreed, which are restored to file or revived or which have been remanded for re-decision should be entered separately in quarterly Judicial Statement No. 1 under two separate headings "Refiled" and "Remanded suits." Such cases.

1. R. P. No. 59, dated 23rd July 1885.
2. R. P. No. 62, dated 3rd December 1885.
3. R. P. No. 79, dated 24th December 1889.
4. R. P. No. 86, dated 26th March 1896.
5. Chief Court Proceedings No. 3696-721-67, dated 6th January 1897.
6. Paragraph 2 (iv) under statement of original civil suits in R. P. 147, dated 7th November 1910.
7. C. L. No. 12, dated 25th September 1879.
8. " No. 61, dated 21st July 1884.

should be treated as pending from the date of their first institution, but in computing their duration the period, if any, during which the proceedings were suspended, in other words, the interval between the first disposal and subsequent revival of proceedings or remand should be excluded. Only the periods from (1) first institution to first disposal and (2) the revival of proceedings to subsequent disposal should be taken into account.

4. In the case of suits, appeals or proceedings held in abeyance under Order IX, Rule 5, Civil Procedure Code, or ordered to lie over owing to the death of any party, under Order XXII, Rules 3 and 4 or for any other reason, whatsoever, the period during which they were held in abeyance should not be excluded in computing duration.

A. SREENIVASARAGAVACHARI,
Registrar.
